The mobile surface for every case - now in it's second revision

With this special item you will be prepared to shoot from every kind of surface. Rather it be metal, stone or wooden surfaces. The plate itself is easily mounted onto your Handguard. Through fasteners which are integrated into the plate, the support pillow will be fastened onto the plate with straps. And because of the formable support pillow you can now place your rifle onto any kind of surface, be it pointed, edgy or even holey.

Also be sure to check out the many variations of support pillows, which can all easily be mounted onto the plate. Of course you can find all of the pillows Ulfhednar has to offer in our shop.
